Re: Michael D. Brandner, M.D. v. Providence Health & Services Washington
Supreme Court No. S-17293

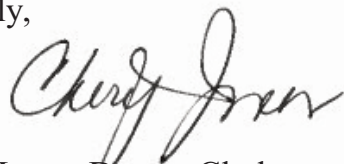

Dear Council:

We will be scheduling the case for oral argument on Thursday, December 17, 2020. You will receive a calendaring notice with the specific date and time for your argument within the next thirty days.

If you are unable to attend argument on any one of the December dates listed above, please inform me immediately, and I will do my best to accommodate your schedule by scheduling your argument for another day that week. I cannot, however, continue and remove your case from the December calendar set out above; such a continuance may be granted only by a justice upon receipt of a motion to continue. Such a motion to continue must be filed on or before Monday, November 2, 2020.

Thank you for your cooperation, and I hope that this advance notice of the upcoming oral argument calendar for your case will be helpful to you.

Sincerely,
